Situated in Mayfair, in the heart of London's West End just a few minutes' walk from the shops and boutiques of Bond Street, South Molton Street and Oxford Street.

Rooms and Suites

- 203 bedrooms including 67 suites, with two penthouses with terraces and views across the London skyline.

- Re-designed in the early 30s, half of the rooms are Art Deco and the rest Victorian. All have had recent attention from leading interior designers, including British furniture and design company LINLEY, and include every modern convenience.

Restaurants and Bars

- The Reading Room restaurant and The Foyer – Designed by Thierry Despont, the elegant Reading Room offers a daily menu for lunch and dinner as well as one course “Claridge's classics” throughout the day. Breakfast is served in both the Foyer and Reading Room restaurant, as is the famous Afternoon Tea.

- The Fumoir – This intimate, candlelit bar is a plush, sophisticated place to enjoy a cocktail.

- Claridge's Bar – Designed by David Collins plays host to London's movers and shakers. It has one of London's widest champagne menus, the cocktails are impeccable and the very best spirits await connoisseurs. The bar menu is worth a visit in its own right.

- “Gordon Ramsay at Claridge's” restaurant – headed by Head Chef, Mark Seargeant – offers some of the finest dining in London, celebrating flavourful combinations of the freshest ingredients. Designed by Thierry Despont it is sumptuous and elegant, but intimate.

Conferences, Meetings and Private Dining Rooms

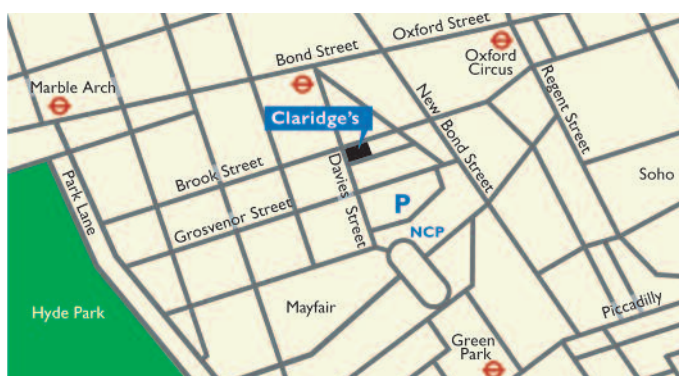

A choice of four banqueting rooms on the ground floor and five private rooms on the 6th floor.
