

THE BERKELEY

KNIGHTSBRIDGE LONDON

COCKTAILS, MANICURES, FASHION DOCUMENTARIES AND PALM TREES SET THE SCENE THIS SUMMER ON THE BERKELEY'S ROOF TOP TERRACE

London, June 2010 ó Known as the place to see and be seen during the summer months, The Berkeley's Health Club & Spa has transformed its roof-top terrace into a dream escape. Hotel guests and day spa visitors are treated to the latest fashion documentaries on the big screen while sipping delicious cocktails and lying on Mulberry throws under the stars. Black & Green ice cream and The Berkeley's very own home made popcorn are on hand while beautifully lit towering palm trees complete the summery atmosphere. The Berkeley's Midnight Movies is on display until the end of August 2010.

Manicures with a choice of Chanel's latest Les Pop-Up nail varnish make for the perfect treat while watching rare and refreshing glimpses behind the doors of some of the world's leading fashion houses, with some of fashion's most respected personalities: Karl Lagerfeld, Marc Jacobs and Gaultier to name a few!

Towering high above bustling Knightsbridge, this palm-lined outdoor theatre is London's only private cinema whisking you away to a world of glamour and fashion. This summer, The Berkeley offers Midnight Movie rates starting at £485 plus VAT for 2 people and include an overnight stay with access to the roof-top cinema.

A special Midnight Movie package for Londoners is available at £85 per person for 2 hours and includes full access to the movie theatre, with 2 signature Blue Bar cocktails per person, a mini-manicure per person with Chanel's latest colors, and plenty of ice cream and home-made popcorn. This package is subject to availability and only available on weekdays.

Movies will be shown between 10.00PM - 12.00PM on Fridays, weather permitting.

About The Berkeley:

The Berkeley, located in fashionable Knightsbridge offers one-off experiences including London's ultimate cocktail paradise -The Blue Barø and two Michelin-star restaurant Marcus Wareing at The Berkeley. The eight floor of the hotel is home to London's only roof-top heath club and spa, boasting panoramic views of Hyde Park. On sunny days the roof retracts with the push of a button creating the Capital's ultimate Roman-style outdoor swimming pool. Berkeley Suites are a recent edition to the hotel created by leading British interior designer Helen Green. The suites are comprised of dove greys, snow whites and powder blues, boasting the most luxurious fabrics which create an oasis of calm. For the ultimate stylish treat, The Berkeley invites guests to Prêt-a-Portea, a fashion inspired afternoon tea that showcases the must have items of the season in the form of colourful pastries and biscuits.
